

Community Workshops

Salem-Keizer Public Schools offers community presentations entitled Recognizing Child Molesters: A New Approach to Protecting Children and Internet Safety: Protecting Your Children from Online Crime. The curriculum was developed by Cory Jewell Jensen, M.S. Ms. Jensen co-directs the Center for Behavioral Intervention and is a sex offender treatment provider.

Presenters include representatives from the following organizations: Marion County District Attorney=s Office, Salem and Keizer Police Departments, Marion County Sheriff=s Office, Salem-Keizer School District, Liberty House, and Willamette ESD.

Visit the Salem-Keizer Public Schools Website at www.salemkeizer.org. Click on AUpcoming Parent Internet Safety and Sex Abuse Prevention Trainings.@ You can also call Carrie Geibel, Intake and Community Coordinator at Liberty House at 503-540-0288 for a schedule of presentations.

The agencies listed above have also identified a team of presenters that offer presentations to the faith community. Contact Carrie Geibel at Liberty House for information at 503-540-0288.